Application for Enrolment Terms and Conditions

Enrolment Conditions

- Domestic learner applicants for Cavalli College programmes must be over 16 years of age prior to starting their chosen programme.
- The full name on your application for enrolment must be exactly the same as the full name on your verified ID.
- Cavalli College reserves the right to refuse your enrolment in the interest of your welfare, the welfare of other learners, or Cavalli College as a whole.
- All applicants must meet the academic and English language requirements for the programme of study they have applied for.
- Once your application for enrolment has been received and processed, you will be sent an “Offer of Place” along with an invoice for fees. You must accept the Offer of Place by signing and returning a copy of the offer to Cavalli College. Each page of the offer must be signed or initialled by you.
- You are required to complete the specified programme work hours and maintain a completed Workplace Skills Record as part of your enrolment and graduation requirements.
- If you receive any convictions (including traffic convictions) while studying at Cavalli College, you must inform Cavalli College in writing within five working days.
- If you wish to change the agreed period of enrolment, you must provide written notification of the new dates to Cavalli College at least seven days before the original commencement date or the new commencement date, whichever is sooner.
- You must meet all of the requirements for your chosen mode and programme of study and abide by Cavalli College’s rules for the duration of your enrolment.

Eligibility to enrol as a domestic student

- Section 10 of the Education and Training Act 2020 sets out who is eligible to enrol as a domestic student and likely entitled to pay domestic fees. This means an individual who is:
 - a New Zealand citizen, or
 - the holder of a residence class visa granted under the Immigration Act 2009, or
 - to be treated as if they are not an international student under the Tertiary Education (Domestic Students) Notice 2024, or any other corresponding notice published in the Gazette and applying for 2025.
- All applicants are required to indicate their cultural identity, citizenship and residency, the country in which they will study, and provide verified evidence of their status as a domestic learner.
- Applicants who do not hold a NZ passport or residency must apply using the International Learner enrolment process. Contact international@cavallicollege.nz for further information.
- There are scenarios under which you may be eligible to be treated as a domestic student. The responsibility for ensuring a student is eligible to access tuition subsidy funding and study support rests with the TEO, who can provide you with more guidance.

Certified Copies of Documents

- Domestic students must provide evidence of identity and eligibility to study by providing one of the following:
 - National Student Number (NSN).
 - New Zealand birth certificate⁸.
 - New Zealand or Australian passport.
 - A certificate of identity from Immigration New Zealand⁹.
 - A New Zealand certificate of citizenship.
 - Overseas passport with visa approval notification.
- You can have your ID documents certified by a Justice of the Peace (JP), a solicitor, or a court registrar or a Cavalli College team member. A certified copy means your original is photocopied, and the copy is sighted, verified and signed as being a true and accurate copy.
- The full name on your application for enrolment must be exactly the same as the full name on your verified ID.

⁸ New Zealand citizens only

⁹ Refugees only.

Emergency Contact Details

- After enrolment, supplying an emergency contact means we will contact that person in the event of an emergency, if we can't get in touch with you directly.
- Emergencies could include wellbeing/medical emergencies that Cavalli College becomes aware of or where they have not had any response from contacting you (the enrolled learner) for more than 3-5 days.
- This information is held securely and privately, and not shared with anyone outside of the Cavalli College team.

Credit Recognition and Transfer

- Cavalli College has a process for recognising prior learning achieved within formal settings either within Cavalli College or externally prior to enrolment. The achievement of graduate outcomes of that study must align with all or some of the graduate outcomes of the Cavalli College programme you are applying for.
- You can apply for Credit Recognition and Transfer by contacting enrol@cavallicollege.nz. You should indicate your intention to apply for Credit Recognition and Transfer during the application process. Additional fees may apply.
- You must submit a certified copy of your official academic transcript and provide detailed course descriptions, including learning outcomes (where possible). If your prior study was completed overseas, an NZQA international qualifications assessment may be required.
- Credit Recognition and Transfer will be granted prior to your enrolment, and your programme of study will reflect the credits granted before enrolment.
- Credit Recognition and Transfer cannot be granted for any course and/or programme of study that was used to meet the entry criteria for the qualification.

Programme Acceptance Requirements

- Certain programmes may require your evidence of a recent police check. This is to ensure you are a fit and proper person for working in the field of your programme, for example Early Childhood Care and Education as required by the Children's Act 2014. We will contact you to discuss the process should this be required.

Payment of Fees

- Your invoice is valid for three months. Any variation to these terms of validity is at the sole discretion of Cavalli College.
- The tuition fees listed in your Offer of Place are those in effect at the time the offer was made. Fees are updated each calendar year, and all offers lapse as of 1 January to reflect the new fee structure.
- If you are re-enrolling, the new tuition fees for the current calendar year will apply.
- Course fees must be paid within 21 days of the invoice date, at least five working days before the start of your study programme, or immediately upon enrolment - whichever is sooner after your acceptance into Cavalli College has been confirmed. If fees are not received by this time, Cavalli College reserves the right to withdraw your Offer of Place.
- Any course fees you pay in advance to Cavalli College are held in a Trust Account maintained by the Public Trust, an approved independent trustee owned by the Crown and managed by the New Zealand Government. This arrangement is accepted by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) as meeting the requirements of the Education and Training Act 2020 and the NZQA Student Fee Protection Rules 2022. Fees are remitted to Cavalli College from the Trust Account periodically in accordance with NZQA's Fee Protection Rules.

Withdrawals and Refunds

- You may request a refund of your tuition fees at any time prior to or during your enrolment, in accordance with the Cavalli College Withdrawal and Refund Policy.
- As a domestic learner, if you withdraw from your programme before it starts, you will receive a full refund less $500 or 10% of the tuition fees received, whichever is the lesser amount. If you withdraw within the first 8 calendar days of the course commencement, you are entitled to a full refund less $500 or 10% of the tuition fees received, whichever is the lesser amount. If you withdraw from a course after the 9th calendar day, you will be eligible for a refund for all tuition paid on a pro rata basis for courses you have not started.
- You may apply for a refund on compassionate grounds after the statutory refund period, as stipulated under the Education and Training Act 2020. In such cases, you must submit full documentation in writing to admin@cavallicollege.nz. Approval of refunds on compassionate grounds is solely at the discretion of Cavalli College.
- Cavalli College reserves the right to withdraw you from study if your academic progress is deemed unsatisfactory.
- Cavalli College's policy on withdrawal and refund of fees may be obtained from the Enrolments Officer or on the Cavalli College Website.

Breach of Expected Learner Conduct

- Cavalli College aims to ensure fair treatment for all learners. While your individual rights will be protected, this does not give you the right to breach Cavalli College rules and policies. Cavalli College reserves the right to take disciplinary action if such rules, policies, or procedures are breached.
- You are expected to display integrity and behave honestly in all interactions with Cavalli College and its associates, including during admission, enrolment, and study. Your behaviour should align with Cavalli College's expectations and comply with relevant government acts and regulations.
- Breaches of expected learner conduct may include actions such as plagiarism, cheating (including submitting work that has been completed entirely or partially by another person), falsifying documents, theft of Cavalli College property (including intellectual property), or committing any criminal offence.
- If you are considered to have breached expected learner conduct, your case will be investigated in accordance with the Cavalli College Learner Disciplinary Action Policy. You will have the opportunity to attend an explanation meeting, and you are encouraged to have a support person present. Cavalli College reserves the right to suspend you from your studies immediately while the investigation is conducted.
- The findings of the investigation will be reviewed by the Cavalli College Programme Board, which will decide whether you have breached the expectations of learner conduct. If a breach is confirmed, a penalty will be determined.
- Penalties for breaches of learner conduct may include non-achievement of assignments or courses, temporary withdrawal from your programme of study, or permanent withdrawal from Cavalli College. Where appropriate, breaches of learner conduct may be referred to external agencies in accordance with the Privacy Act.

Disability impairments

- Cavalli College follows the New Zealand Disability Strategy definition of disability, which utilises the social model of disability. The New Zealand Disability Strategy states that, "disability is not something individuals have. What individuals have are impairments. They may be physical, sensory, neurological, psychiatric, learning or other impairments." Therefore, "disability is the process which happens when one group of people create barriers by designing a world only for their way of living, taking no account of the impairments other people have." In a learning situation the barrier could be something that affects your learning or pace of learning.
- All applicants are invited to share with Cavalli College any disability impairments or diverse needs that are likely to impact on their learning experience or ability to meet the programme requirements.
- In sharing this information with Cavalli College, you consent to us contacting you to discuss your needs and any support we can offer you. Any written records of the needs discussion are held confidentially within the Cavalli College individual learner records filing system, in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020. You have the right to request who within Cavalli College has access to these records.

Complaint Procedure

- In accordance with NZQA procedures, if you have a complaint about Cavalli College, you must first follow the formal complaint process through Cavalli College.
- You should contact support@cavallicollege.nz in the first instance for all complaints. The Cavalli College team will provide you with guidance on how to proceed. Information about the complaints process is provided during your orientation. Please note that Cavalli College cannot address complaints that relate to employment; you will be referred to the appropriate organisation for such complaints.
- You may be asked to put your complaint in writing so that Cavalli College can undertake a full investigation.
- When a complaint is received, it will be acknowledged within one (1) working day.
- Depending on the nature of the grievance, Cavalli College may take up to 15 working days to investigate and decide on a response to the complainant. Cavalli College will engage appropriate people to investigate and provide advice on decisions, including cultural advice in appropriate cases.
- As part of the complaint investigation, the complainant will be given the opportunity to have a meeting to discuss their complaint and will be invited to have a support person present.
- On completion of the investigation, Cavalli College will supply the complainant with a written response to their complaint.
- Cavalli College will provide time for the complainant to respond to the decision. If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation, they may appeal the decision within seven (7) days. A review of the investigation process, findings and the result will be undertaken by a senior team member of Cavalli College.
- Should the complainant still not be satisfied with the Cavalli College response on completion of the appeal review, the complainant will be referred to NZQA, the Code Administrator or Study Complaints (as per the DRS).
- NZQA handles complaints about registered education providers where there has been a possible breach of NZQA rules, regulations, or the Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice.
 - To submit a complaint to NZQA, you can complete NZQA's online complaint form
 - Or, if you are unable to use the form, you can contact NZQA directly by on 0800 697 296, or email complaints@nzqa.govt.nz

- Study Complaints is a free and independent service available to both domestic and international learners to help resolve disputes with education providers.
 - You can submit a complaint to Study Complaints if your concern relates to the conduct of Cavalli College or something that happened during your study, including academic or non-academic concerns, fairness or learner treatment, mediation or resolution discussions and financial or contractual matters.
 - You can contact Study Complaints by phone on 0800 00 66 75, or email complaints@studycomplaints.org.nz. More information is available on the Study Complaints website: <https://www.studycomplaints.org.nz/>

Education Code of Practice 2021

- Cavalli College agrees to observe and be bound by The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021. The Code outlines the minimum standards of advice and care that educational providers in New Zealand are expected to uphold. You can view the Code at <https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz/tertiary/the-code/>

Collection of Information

- Post enrolment, as an NZQA registered Private Training Enterprise (PTE) Cavalli College may (from time to time) be required to share personal learner information with external agencies including, but not limited to, NZQA, Immigration New Zealand, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Social Development, Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment, Inland Revenue, StudyLink, and employers.
- Information affecting your learning and academic progress is shared professionally between Cavalli College and supervising staff in work experience environments. Permission for this is provided through the signing of the Workplace Agreement and Learner Skills Record by the learner, workplace supervisor and Cavalli College tutor.
- Information that is disclosed with Cavalli College around learning support needs or disability impairment (seen or unseen) will only be shared with your prior approval.

Declaration

Privacy statement

The Privacy Act 2020 has the stated aim of protecting and promoting the privacy of individuals. It governs the collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information. Cavalli College handles personal information in accordance with the 13 information privacy principles in the Act.

Cavalli College collects and stores personal information from this form to:

- comply with the requirements of the Education and Training Act 2020 and other legislation relating to maintenance of records
- manage its business, including internal reporting, administrative processes and selection of scholarship and award/prize winners; and
- supply information to government agencies and other organisations, as set out below.

Cavalli College will comply with all legal requirements in relation to the use and disclosure of personal information, as set out in the Privacy Act 2020. You are entitled to see any information that Cavalli College holds about you and request that any errors in the information be corrected. To do so, contact the Registrar.

Disclosure of personal information to government agencies

Cavalli College may supply personal information collected on this form to the following government agencies:

- Tertiary Education Commission
- Ministry of Education
- New Zealand Qualifications Authority
- Ministry of Social Development
- Inland Revenue
- Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, including Immigration New Zealand; and
- when required by law, New Zealand Police, Department of Justice and the Accident Compensation Corporation.

The government agencies listed above may use the personal information supplied to them to:

- administer the tertiary education system, including allocating funding and the administration of the Fees Free schemes
- develop policy advice for government
- conduct statistical analysis and research
- update the New Zealand Record of Achievement
- include in the National Student Index or use in an authorised information matching programme with the New Zealand Birth Register
- fulfil their statutory responsibilities
- supply it to Statistics New Zealand to be integrated in Statistics New Zealand's Integrated Data Infrastructure.

Disclosure of personal information to other agencies and organisations

Cavalli College may also supply personal information as applicable to:

- other educational organisations for the purpose of verifying academic records
- Education New Zealand for the purposes of supporting international students
- scholarship providers for the purposes of administering scholarships
- debt collection agencies for the purposes of recovering unpaid fees

Storage of personal information

Data collected from tertiary education organisations is now stored in the Cloud. Student enrolment and course and qualification completion data is stored in a Microsoft datastore based in Sydney, Australia.

Programme Fees

In completing and signing this Application for Enrolment you agree that you have the ability to pay all (applicable) fees as required and agreed by the terms and conditions in the Cavalli College Offer of Enrolment. You undertake to pay all fees as they become due, and to meet any late fees and collection charges associated with debt recovery. Cavalli College's policy on withdrawal and refund of fees may be obtained from the Enrolments Officer or on the Cavalli College Website.

Fees Protection

In the unlikely event that Cavalli College is unable to deliver the programme in which you have enrolled, Cavalli College has protected your fees with Public Trust. Fees deposited and protected by the Public Trust are held in the Common fund which has an unsecured guarantee from the New Zealand Government. The learner fee protection for Cavalli College is fully compliant with NZQA rules. Should access to your fees be necessary, you may contact Public Trust on 0800 494 733 or feeprotect@publictrust.co.nz. This arrangement has been accepted by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority as meeting the requirements of the Education and Training Act (2020) and the Student Fee Protection Rules 2021.
