

New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Level 3) Health Assistance Strand

CAVALLI
COLLEGE

NZQA approved

70 credits

18 weeks duration

Flexible learning

Monthly intakes

Gain valuable skills and knowledge that are not only transferable across health and wellbeing settings but also specific to the role of a healthcare assistant.

Programme highlights:

- Provide culturally appropriate person-centred care under supervision
- Communicate effectively to foster positive relationships
- Recognise and respond to signs of vulnerability in clients
- Understand the legislation and regulations for ethical care

Mode of learning:

- Supportive, interactive online learning
- Community and workplace learning experiences
- Learn while you work or volunteer

Career opportunities:

- Gain employment in aged care, disability, and other support services
- Advance your career and earning potential
- Pathway into the New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Advanced Care and Support) (Level 4)

Entry criteria:

- Applicants must be a minimum of 16 years old
- English language learners must provide proof of competency

www.cavallicollege.nz

(09) 486 3000 | enrol@cavallicollege.nz

NZQA1
category one education provider