New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Social and Community Services) (Level 4) Mental Health and Addiction Support Strand

CAVALLI COLLEGE

Limited spaces // Apply today

The New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Social and Community Services) (Level 4) Mental Health and Addiction Support Strand), equips learners with an understanding of mental health and addiction issues and apply strategies, interventions, and tools to work alongside people and whānau in mental health and/or addiction settings.

NZQA approved

120 credits

35 week duration

Blended learning

Monthly intakes

Programme highlights:

- Provide culturally safe, inclusive care.
- Support autonomy, resilience, and hope in those with mental health and addiction issues.
- Work collaboratively and apply effective communication strategies to manage the impacts of stigma and discrimination.
- Develop self-awareness, reflective practice, and personal leadership.

Career opportunities:

- Advance your skills and knowledge in the healthcare sector.
- Find employment as a mental health and addiction support worker, addiction programme facilitator, caregiver, or residential support worker.
- Boost your earning potential and career progression.

Entry requirements:

- Applicants must be a minimum of 16 years old to commence the programme.
- Applicants are required to have initial checks to ensure they are fit and proper to provide support, specific to the context in which they work.
- English language learners must provide proof of competency.

www.cavallicollege.nz
enrol@cavallicollege.nz

NZQA 1 category one education provider